

2020 Rodman C. Stewart Memorial Safety Leadership Award

Each year the Association seeks nominations for The Rodman C. Stewart Memorial Safety Leadership Award. This is to recognize the “outstanding individual in the ready mixed and aggregates industries that have made superior and substantial contributions to his or her company’s or to the industry’s efforts toward proactive, safe operating practices.”

The winner will be recognized at the Virtual Annual Conference on Thursday, November 19, 2020.

If you would like to nominate someone for this award, you can do so by completing the form below email (annelise@coloradocaa.org) no later than Monday, November 2.

People in this area of our industry fulfill a critical function that is vital to our safety and success.

Please do not overlook this chance to recognize them!
